VyTA: Experience Italy In The Heart Of Covent Garden

Photography: Matteo Piazza; Words: Giulia Palmieri

In the heart of the iconic Covent Garden Piazza you'll find the vibrant and effervescent VyTA restaurant. You'll be transported back in time to 1960's Italy once you step foot into the opulent restaurant. With an array of luxurious decorative details and geometric stylisations, the electrifying energy of the mixologists, the magnetic pull to the grand terrace and its views over Covent Garden, this is sure to be the go to spot for Londoners.

VyTA pays attention to every detail to create a truly memorable dining experience for every single guest. With impeccable attention to detail, first class service and welcoming staff, this is a restaurant that puts the guests needs first.

Enjoy the luxurious authentic Italian menu while sipping on sumptuous cocktails that are sure to invigorate your senses. With a modern twist on classic Italian dishes and a focus on fresh fish, executive chef, Mario Bruno will guide you through every dish on the mouth watering menu, helping you select which dish to indulge in. Chef Mario will be personally greeting every guest at each table which adds to VyTA's truly unique dining experience.

Finish off the perfect culinary experience with one of their hand picked wines from the VyTA award-winning collection. You'll truly feel as though you've escaped London for an Italian oasis.

To end on a sweet note, indulge in their decadent selection of desserts, paired wines, or a genuine Italian coffee.

The scene is now officially set for one of the most spectacular dining experiences you can find in London. The terrace boasts live DJ sets that add to the feel good element of your experience that allows you to sit back, relax, and enjoy an all-encompassing sensory experience.

In the words of Daniela Colli, founder of the Rome-based award-winning architecture and interior design studio COLLIDANIELARCHITETTO, that brought the restaurant to life "VyTA Covent Garden is a wonderland of colours and shapes, designed to surprise, celebrate and entertain people who's looking for a world of pleasure".

No expense is spared to ensure that your experience at VyTA is definitely one for the books. ■
